Peace Ambassador

Jelle Postma

Our democracy needs support. We expose active polarisation and help those under siege to stay safe. Director at Justice for Prosperity - fmr Sr UN Representative - IEP Ambassador
Amsterdam, North Holland, Netherlands

Summary

Justice for Prosperity aims to support, promote, advocate for, and represent the rights, and interests of victims and vulnerable groups, such as the LGBTIQ+ community, activists, and those fighting for our open societies. We do this by providing them material and immaterial support, whilst advocating for their rights.

We bring together private-public cooperation towards success for the greater good. Because peace is profitable, and where justice goes, prosperity grows.

During my time as Sr. Manager at the United Nations Office of Counter Terrorism in New York, I have proven to be a competent innovator and capacity builder focused on sustainable results, working closely with both operations and higher government, always in close cooperation with industries. Skilled in International Cooperation and information exchange, Government, Politics and Negotiations. Strong programme management skills. Educated as Constructional Engineer.

Honoured to lead global capacity building and development initiatives where it matters. This includes Aviation Security and implementing the global CT Travel Program to help countries protecting their national security under UNSC Res 2178, 2396 and 2482, together with relevant UN entities and Member States. We work hard to support countries to further improve their national security.
